TAKING PREVENTATIVE MEASURES TO MAINTAIN YOUR APARTMENT

The most common time people sign new leases is in the summer, when many weather-related issues for apartments can fly under the radar. It's all good and well when the sun is shining, but when fall rolls around, damp and cold conditions can reveal those hidden issues. Take a minute today to do this pre-autumn checkup of your apartment:

- 1) Run your heater to make sure it's working.
- 2) Place water-absorbent mats for your shoes near your front door so you don't track mud and water into your apartment. If you have a dog, keep a stock of small towels near the door for those muddy paw-pads, too.
- 3) Place water-absorbent mats for your shoes near your front door so you don't track mud and water into your apartment. If you have a dog, keep a stock of small towels near the door for those muddy paw-pads, too.
- 4) Check indoor holiday lights and/or pre-lit trees carefully for safety and do not leave on when you leave the residence. Dispose of any possible hazardous lights.
